Question: I’m getting the error message “Object code must be all capital or all expenses.”

This appears when the processor is trying to divide the tax amount between equipment and supplies without itemizing them. Equipment and supplies and their appropriate tax amounts should be in separate line transactions, one with equipment object code and the other with supplies object code. See example below